

Frequently Asked Questions

---

What is the time commitment of the program?

The classes are held the 2nd Friday of the month from October-June. The classes are from 8:30 am-5 pm and then an optional happy hour to follow. You will be asked to do some outside reading and work for the class over the course of the 9 months.

What is the cost of the program?

The actual cost per class member is $5700. But since we are a non-profit 501c3 organizational we have been fortunate in the past to have a Board of Directors who make large financial contributions in order to subsidize the cost of the program which brings the tuition cost to $1495. We do offer partial scholarships and personalized payment plans.

Are full scholarships offered?

No, only partial scholarships.

How likely am I to get a partial scholarship?

If you are interested in being considered for a partial scholarship you need to indicate so on your application under the "Financial Obligation section". You will need to include a letter with your application explaining why you should be considered for a scholarship. When you come in for your 15-minute interview for the program, the panel of 3 judges will determine if you are eligible for a scholarship.

What will I get out of LPR?

You will get out of LPR as much as your put into it. You will have the opportunity to network with 65-high caliber class members from around the state of Colorado who are from the business, legal, education, healthcare, political communities. You will also be exposed to 2500+ LPR graduates. You will have the opportunity to hear from conservative experts from around the country. You will have the opportunity to learn the conservative principles of our Founding Fathers and our Constitution and be intellectually challenged.
